P.O. Box 1450
Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

Sir:

Pursuant to the telephone Interview with Examiners Dennis Myint and Cam Y. T. Truong on Sept. 12, 2006, Applicant submits herewith an archival CD containing copies of 3 demonstration Quick Time movies: Sticky Path, Classification and Key Phrases. These demo movies were provided by links in e-mails to the Examiners during the period August 21, 2006 - Sept. 12, 2006. The features demonstrated in the movies were also demonstrated live, via WebEx video conference, Dr. Horn hosting and demonstrating on Sept. 12, 2006.

The enclosed CD serves as an archival copy representative of the WebEx live demo, during which the demonstrated features were mapped to the elements e) and c), sub-parts i)-iv) of Main Claims 1 and 11, respectively,.

Please make the CD of record in the file.

The courtesy of the Examiners in the Interview is greatly appreciated. It was concluded by all that a live demonstration in the Interview via WebEx is an extremely useful manner of presentation that promotes a better understanding of features of the inventive program.

Respectfully submitted,

Bruce Horn
